

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ASSOCIATION PRINCIPLES AND PURPOSES

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
- Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

Hymn # 221 Light One Candle

Chalice Lighting by Rabbi Rami M. Shapiro

One: We kindle this light in honor of hope.

Many: May we never lose heart in our quest for justice.

We kindle this light in honor of action.

May we never mistake wishing for doing.

We kindle this light in honor of nature.

May our eyes never dim to her wonders nor our ears grow deaf to her cries of pain.

We kindle this light in honor of unity.

May we celebrate our differences, and yet have the courage to see beyond them.

We kindle this light in honor of knowledge.

May we free ourselves from opinion that we might open ourselves to truth.

We kindle this light in honor of kindness.

May we cultivate compassion in thought, word, and deed.

We kindle this light in honor of heroism.

May we never surrender to tyranny no matter how dear we hold the tyrant.

Extinguishing Chalice

"Our service has ended, but our work is not yet done. May our spirits be renewed, and our purpose resolved as we meet the challenges of the week. The chalice flame is extinguished until once again ignited by the strength of our communion."
