

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ASSOCIATION PRINCIPLES AND PURPOSES

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Many Unitarian Universalist congregations, including ours, have added an 8th Principle:

- Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

* Hymn #1015 - I Know I Can (v 1, 2, 4)

Chalice Lighting Ann McIntire

How great it is when we come to know that times of disappointment can be followed by times of fulfillment;
that sorrow can be followed by joy;
that guilt over falling short of our ideals can be replaced by pride in doing all that we can;
and that anger can be channeled into creative achievements and into dreams that we can make come true!

Extinguishing Chalice

*"Our service has ended, but our work is not yet done.
May our spirits be renewed, and our purpose resolved as we meet the challenges of the week. The chalice flame is extinguished until once again ignited by the strength of our communion."*
