HYMN SING

David Chapman, Director of Music, and Beth Charbonneau, Worship Associate

Have a favorite hymn that you haven't heard in a while or want to hear again? Submit your request from either the gray or teal hymnals upon arrival for our service of song and see if yours will be pulled out of the hat. All voices are welcome, and this intergenerational service will also feature a Kid's Pick hymn.

This is an All Ages Celebration; children and youth are invited to remain in the Meetinghouse for the entire service. Nursery Care for the youngest is provided in Room 5.

JULY 10

TIME AND CULTURE

Ebony Contreras, Worship Leader, and Van Summers, Worship Associate

Since the Mayans first developed three different calendars, notions of time and time management have had a cultural component. What does the way we regard time tell us about our culture? What's the relationship between time and power? Time and balance? Time and our values?

JULY 17

JOHREI

Neil Davidson, Worship Leader, and Noel Monardes, Worship Associate

Johrei is a spiritual healing technique from the Japanese tradition that involves channeling light and energy to others. It also involves facing challenges as opportunities for purification, and engaging in practices to foster beauty in the environment. Find out more during the service and join practitioners, if you wish, for individual Johrei sessions during the Enrichment Hour.

JULY 24

AFTER THE BANNER

Diversity/Anti-Racism Transformation Team (DARTT), Worship Leaders, with Carol Carter Walker, Worship Associate

In June, the congregation voted to place a Black Lives Matter banner in a visible space on church property. This service will explore what else we are not only willing but yearning to do as a congregation in our quest for Beloved Community.

JULY 31

BUILDING COMMUNITY TOGETHER

Celinda Marsh, Worship Leader, and Will Snyder, Worship Associate

How is community built? How can we support the transformation from fragmentation to healthy and authentic communities? Celinda will reflect on these themes from Peter Block's Community: The Structure of Belonging, including their relevance to Paint Branch.

Minister's Column

We should have a sense of accomplishment and feel hopeful as we find ourselves approaching the halfway point of the two years we've chosen to walk together in this voyage of interim ministry. During the past year, a thoughtful and inclusive process lead the congregation to vote to place a Black Lives Matter banner on the church property; a series of Compelling Conversations gave everyone the opportunity to think about the purpose of this beloved church and to dream about its future together; we continue our work of being a Welcoming Congregation, a Green Sanctuary, and an intentionally multicultural and multigenerational faith community; together, we have continued to do the healing work following a period of loss and uncertainty in this church.

What questions might we address together in the second year of this transition? Here are three that I find myself asking.

How will we be responsible stewards of the church's future?

What kind of planning and dreaming might we do together (including the continuation of conversations that have gone on in the church in recent years) to revitalize the church's physical space, strengthen current programs, and launch bold new initiatives? What would it take for us to accomplish those goals together in the coming years?

What kinds of relationships do we want to have with one another?

How can we continue to bring out the best in ourselves and one another? How do we confront broken relationships and difficult interactions in our midst with compassion and equity? How can we wisely inhabit the paradox that true freedom can only exist with clear boundaries?

What kind of relationships does the congregation want to have with its ministers and staff?

What are the expectations in the congregation's culture about the roles of leaders, especially clergy and staff leaders? How might we renew our vision of the possibilities of those relationships as the church prepares to begin a new chapter with a new settled minister?

I look forward to the conversations.

Evan —

The Rev. Evan Keely, Interim Minister

Board of Trustees Column

The Board of Trustees held its last 2016 Fiscal year board meeting Tuesday, June 21 with all of incoming Board members as well as the new Assistant Treasurer and Secretary able to attend. The Assistant Treasurer, Louise Waugh and the Secretary, Erin Gebhart were appointed. New Members will be installed during the July meeting. The bulk of the meeting was given over to the proposed budget. The MRE training budget was increased from $400 to $800 since we need to train OWL/Coming of Age leaders which the team did not know about during the budgeting process. The budget was passed as amended. Special Fundraising events MUST be cleared by our Church Administrator, Chuck Berry to be placed on the Calendar well in advance of said event in order to prevent overlapping of events, etc.

The Board approved the recommendation by the MRE Search team to appoint a team to negotiate a final offer package to a prospective Director. Stay tuned for more news!

Quentin West was approved to be hired as our second Building Manager, replacing Romeo Ndonfak who has accepted another position outside of PBUUC.

Soltez Engineering submitted a preliminary design for water abatement/new parking lot and requested that the Board approve moving to the next phase, a detailed design at no cost or obligation to PBUUC at this stage. The board approved moving to the next step. When we have received the detailed designs, we will be bringing the project to the church as a whole for discussion.

Hope Christian Academy has caught up on its rental payments and Muriel Morisey, incoming Board Member, will be taking over as the Board Liaison.

The next board meeting will be Tuesday, July 19 at 7 pm

Respectfully,

John Barr, Board Co-Chair;

Liz Citrin & Tess Morrison, Board Vice Chairs

Fiscal Year-End Reminder

PLEDGES, DONATIONS AND YEARS:

RECORDING THEM CORRECTLY

This month, July 2016, is the first month of PBUUC's new fiscal year. There are two different "years" for which you may be monitoring your financial donations to Paint Branch. One is the calendar year, which began January 1, 2016 and runs through December 31, 2016. The other is the fiscal year referred to above. FYs overlap two calendar years so are referred to by both. FY 2015/2016 just ended June 30. This new one, FY 2016/2017, is the one you may have recently made a pledge for, and it begins July 1.

Why should you know or care about these two years?

The Calendar Year is the one the IRS will be looking at when you report your charitable contributions made in 2016. PBUUC will provide you with a summary of your 2016 donations early in 2017, all of which must have been received by PBUUC in 2016; IRS's rules; not ours.

The Fiscal Year is the period in which you want to try to satisfy each pledge, and you have some choices in how you do this. Pay it in one lump sum, pay it quarterly, monthly, weekly, or however works best for you. What's important is that you correctly identify each contribution so we can record it in the computer according to your wishes. That's done via the memo line on your check. Here are some examples. Putting "FY 2016/2017 pledge" on the memo line for any pledge donation in this FY is adequate. If you pay monthly or weekly, you could instead write "July '16 pledge" or "January '17 pledge" etc. on the memo line. If you make irregular payments, but still want to satisfy your pledge within the FY, break it up however you like; just let us know the FY you intend each payment for. Any check which has nothing in the memo line will be assumed to be for the FY in which it is written. And remember, for IRS purposes, each payment will be recorded as a donation for the calendar year in which it's made.

If you wish to finish paying your FY15/16 pledge even though that FY has ended, please try to do so in July. We can no longer apply your donation to expenses due before that, but we can credit the payment to your FY 15/16 pledge payment before we close the books. Just be sure to put that on the memo line.

If you have any questions, contact David Nation, dave@davenation.com, Treasurer or Marilyn Pearl, buffalo_gal@verizon.net, Assistant Treasurer, or see either of us at church.

UUMAC 2016 Needs Your Auction Donations

All funds raised by the Scholarship Auction benefits UUMAC attendees. The auction proceeds provide scholarships to those who might not be able to afford the UUMAC tuition. So, PLEASE DON'T FORGET YOUR UUMAC AUCTION DONATIONS!

Clean out your garage, basement and attic and offer family heirlooms for auction. How about re-gifting that sweater you will never wear? Or bring that unwanted holiday fruitcake from dear Aunt (insert name here) - They have amazingly long expiration dates!! - Or gently used housewares, clothing, or tools... Maybe some handmade items, or jewelry, or electric can openers, or Pam's coffee mug ...all are welcome (just like UUMAC!).

Think about a service you might offer this year. Some past services offered (just to get you thinking):

- A guided meditation to your sanctuary
- Private Relaxation Session
- Childcare
- Assistance packing up your car
- Musical instrument/singing lessons
- Massage
- Reiki

The Scholarship Fund depends on your kind and generous donations. Thank you everyone!

(PBBUC's UUMAC contact is Abby Crowley 301-335-8829, who is also collecting for a basket of children's arts and crafts to donate to the auction.)

UU Church of Annapolis Lighthouse Dinners

UUCA volunteers cook dinner at the Lighthouse Shelter at 10 Hudson St. in Annapolis on the 2nd Saturday of every month. You can get together with a group (e.g. covenant group, family, or friends) and prepare an entire meal together or sign up as an individual and be matched with others to provide dinner. A group of 4-5 people is usually plenty to cook and serve.

Arrive at the shelter at 4 pm to prep/cook the meal. Serve dinner cafeteria style at 6 pm sharp.

The shelter kitchen has cooking gear, but you might want to bring your favorite knife for chopping. Meal clean up is handled by the residents.

You can be reimbursed! It usually costs $150-200 to buy groceries for the meal. If this is not within your/your group's current financial constraints, you can get reimbursed. Contact Carrie for a form or pick one up from Susan in the Church office. A big THANK YOU to the UUCA Endowment Fund & Committee for funding this!

Social Action Committee (SAC) News

Please join SAC in a farewell reception for Nancy Boardman who is moving to New Jersey to be closer to her sons and their families and to her new grandson. We will hold the reception Sunday, July 3, in the sanctuary after service.

Nancy joined PBUUC more than 20 years ago. Since joining, Nancy has been an enthusiastic and active member of this congregation. She has been a member of the choir for at least 14 years; and in 2010, after retirement, she became a co-chair of the Social Action Committee. She has served as its chair for the past 5 years. In that role she has also been a member of the board of UUs for Social Justice (UUSJ) and spearheaded PBUUC's drive in support of marriage equality, which became Maryland law in 2013. In addition, Nancy has been very active in her Greenbelt community in support of a variety of social justice issues.

Nancy will be departing from our midst this month. She will be sorely missed by the many friends she has here. She says she plans to return for visits. We will hold her to that.

Though we will miss Nancy greatly, SAC will continue her efforts to serve PBUUC in support of its goals as they relate to promoting "the inherent worth and dignity of every person" and "justice, equity and compassion in human relations"—the first two of UU's seven principles. As Rosemarie C. Smurzynski, Minister Emerita, wrote:

The note of spirituality that Unitarian Universalists have heard over this past decade has become a distinct melody. . . . Today we hear it in our own voices as we seek what is holy. We find it in the quiet of our hearts, in the voices of fellowship, in the work of justice, and in the wonder of nature. The sound calls us to discipline and practice and manifests itself through inward spirit and outward action.

We hope you will join us. Look for more to come.

Want to do something about gun control?

We have a number of email alert lists about various social action and global warming issues. Recipients receive emails telling them about campaigns to influence legislators or others. If you receive such a message, it is then your choice of whether or not to send the message in. When you do send it in, you help to create huge responses to specific issues.

I'm now forming such a list about gun control. If you want to contact legislators about outlawing assault weapons, for instance, please send me your email address. You can opt out at any time.

Our other alert lists are on these issues: the environment, affordable housing, peace, anti-racism, GLBTQ, health, human rights, Israel-Palestine, mental health, nuclear power, poverty, prisons, refugees, trade globalization, the widening wealth divide and women's issues. Write to me at margory.donn@verizon.net if you want me to add you to any of these lists.

Warm Nights Update:

Over the course of 35 weeks, beginning in mid-October, 2015 and running through Saturday, June 12, 2016, together we provided 8,908 Nights of Shelter to 260 individuals including 91 children. During this period, CCSI, Warm Nights coordinator, was able to help one family and one individual move into permanent supportive housing; move 3 families into transitional housing; help 4 families rent their own apartments; help 3 individuals rent their own apartments; and moved 5 families into the Family Emergency Shelter. It is good to see the overall picture of our church's efforts toward a continuing need in our community. Many Thanks for everyone's help.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS NEWS:

Thank You from the Kathryn Dunham Dance Center

A letter from the Board Chairwoman of the Dance Center in East St. Louis, Illinois was received thanking our congregation for the $600 contribution sent last month from our special collection. The Center provides training for young people regularly and will be sending a troupe to Chicago to participate in a dance concert. Dancers who trained and performed with Kathryn Dunham continue to teach are still active with groups in several cities. Our contribution will help defray the cost of this exciting opportunity for these youth who have few high points in their lives.

Diversity Anti-Racism Transition Team

Next ADORE Session Sunday, July 24 after DARTT Sunday Service. The theme of the next ADORE Session will be the same as the theme of the Sunday, July 24 Service: After the Banner. We'll gather in The Meeting House Sanctuary after the Service for a potluck meal and small group discussions. Please contact the Diversity/Anti-Racism Transformation Team if you'd like to volunteer a dish for the potluck.

The July 12 DARTT meeting will be to plan activities for the church year. That meeting will take place July 12 at 7 pm in Room 4 of the RE Building.

Barack Obama: Made In Hawai'i Documentary Now Raising Funds Through Faithify, A UU Crowdfunding Source. This documentary tells the largely unknown story of the place and values that helped shape the 44th President—the multicultural society of Hawai'i and the Unitarian Church. President Obama's mother and grandparents were Unitarians who were members of the Bellingham, Washington and Honolulu, Hawai'i congregations. As a child, President Obama was part of the Honolulu RE program. You can help fund the completion of this documentary, which will provide a unique opportunity to share our faith with the wider universe. There is a modest goal of $3,000 to fund post-production editing, including more information about Unitarianism as a factor in the President's upbringing. Faithify is an all or nothing crowd funding source; i.e., if the full amount is not raised by July 17, your donation will be returned. You can support this worthy cause by donating at: <http://www.faithify.org/projects/barack-obama-made-in-hawaii/>

In and Around Paint Branch

TWedHUUIk

The Third Wednesday lunch group (TWedHUUIk) will be trying a newer place (for us) in July. It's the Old Line Bistro in Beltsville which I just discovered thanks to Marg Owens' suggestion.

The address is 11011 Baltimore Ave. (Route 1) in Beltsville, in a little strip mall at the southeast corner of Powder Mill Rd and Rt.1. At the very end of the shopping center is a large wine store, Old Line Fine Wine, Spirits and Bistro. The Bistro is in the back of the store. They have a nice menu and it seems like a pleasant place for us to get together.

Set aside July 20 at 1 pm for lunch with friends from PBUUC. Everyone is welcome. Contact Elaine Shell at 301-776-4271 or elaine@greville.net for more info.

You are invited to a BBQ from noon to 4 pm, this Saturday, July 2, at PBUUC. This event is intended for members and friends of all ages. We will be eating on the deck (weather permitting) with some seats available in the Meeting House foyer for those who can't be outside. Hamburgers and hotdogs (including vegan versions) with fixings and rolls will be provided; along with beverages, ice cream, and watermelon. You are encouraged to sign up to bring a side dish or desert, and/or to sign up to help with set-up, cooking, or clean up. Suggested donation is $10/person or $25/family. Questions or suggestions? Please contact Louise Waugh at 301-474-5229 or LouiseMWaugh@hotmail.com. Sign up online at <http://bit.ly/pbuucBBQ>

ALOHA! LUAU ANYONE?

A lot of the planning for an authentic Hawaiian Luau was already completed for us eleven years ago for our July 2005 Ethnic Dinner. To prepare another one here at Paint Branch on Saturday, August 20, requires only that we go through the records, review each element of that previous one, and decide which we want to include, omit or replace this time. Is there any better way to wind up the summer of 2016 than to experience the food, drink and music of Hawaii, birth-place of our outgoing president?

Maybe there is. We can begin it earlier in the afternoon to fully include all ages, provide simpler food and some entertainment for the kids. We can get creative with tropical décor creating an island ambiance. We can try to hula dance, speak a little Hawaiian, and even learn what our own names are in that melodic language. Or we can come up with some entirely new ideas. And while we're enjoying the event, we'll be raising some extra funds for Paint Branch.

If a few small groups of two or three people will volunteer to work on developing each of the things we choose to include, this cannot help but be one nui hauoli hoolaulea (big happy festival, for all you haoles). There is already a nuclear group working to make this happen and provide some guidance, but we need more ideas, heads and hands to pull it together.

Watch the Continuum and Sunday bulletin announcements for opportunities to help with planning, organizing and producing this event. If you'd like to participate or have some suggestions, please contact Marilyn Pearl 301-805-1218, buffalo_gal@verizon.net
